

Job vacancy

woh|group consists of seven worldwide operating virtual airlines and has been established in 2000. Our voluntary, interactive and pleasant team is always looking for support.

In line with our current restructuring program „Organisation 2020“ we have created the following position to further share our duties:

Head of Communication

Your tasks are

- Development or Redesign of our Inflight Entertainment webpage
- Preparation of our Annual Report
- Preparation of press releases
- Maintenance of our Facebook and Twitter accounts
- Reactivation of our Onboard Magazine or other media content (if needed)

The position fits to you, if

- you are interested in Aviation and you are creative,
- you are capable of the English and German language,
- you are familiar with Microsoft Word and Content Management Systems and
- if you have at least one hour time per week for this position.

If you are interested and you feel like supporting and developing woh|group together with us, we are looking forward to your application to florian.brunner@fly-woh.com.
